

STAHELI WEST

At Western Powder Coating, our goal is always the same—delivering a high-quality, long-lasting finish without long wait times or hassle.

In 2020, we proudly joined Staheli West, Inc., a locally owned farm equipment manufacturer led by Dave Staheli and his sons. Having worked with them since 2010, we're excited to be part of their team while continuing to offer the same great services to our customers.
